> INDIANAPOLIS, March 9,-The legislature yesterday passed the mechanics' lien bill which makes the owner of a building responsible to workmen and furnishers of material, although be may have paid the contractor; also the bill authorizing the establishment of kindergarden schools for children between 4 and 6 years of age. The joint session of the legislature elected James W. French. of Lafayette; Levi Mock, of Bluffton, and James Reniban, of this city, directors of the Michigan City prison.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 11 .- The Indiana legislature closes its business to-day by law, as its limit of time by law runs out. Saturday the appropriation bills were rushed through and all of them have the money tied up so as to prohibit payment of salaries to any except appointees of the legislature The house bill providing for the borrowing of $1,400,000 was also passed. The bill making bribery a criminal act also got through, as did a bill to give saloonkeepers who are re used license the right of appeal to the circuit court and requiring those opposing the license to give bonds to carry the suit

The governor vetoed the bill prohibiting the piping of ratural gas out of this state on the ground that the legislature might as well try to prohibit the shipment of any other product out of the state.

It is reported that this city, Evansville, and Terre Haute, will not turn over the police departments to the commission created by the legislature. This will bring the matter into the courts for settlement like much more of the legislation passed at this session. INDIANAPOLIS, March 12,-The last day of the present session of the general assembly was characterized by an interesting fight in the senate between the advocates and the opponents of high license. Though the constitution provides that no bills shall be presented to the governor for two days before the legislature expires by limitation of law, it has been held that this is a provision made to protect the executive in the exercise of his veto power, and he could waive it if he so desired. On Saturday an effort was made to get the high license bill considered in the senate, and though a majority favored it, the necessary two-thirds could not be obtained, and the bill could not be taken up out of the order. When this became known the governor notified the friends of the measure that he would waive his constitutional privilege and sign the bill if it were passed yesterday. Early yesterday morning it was called up and an attempt made to pass it, Several attempts were made to adjourn Dilatory motions followed, but enough Democrats voted with the Republicans to prevent any other business from being considered, and the high license measure was finally passed by a vote of 27 to 20. Later in the day the governor signed the bill, and it is a law. It permits town and city boards to charge a license fee of $250, the former law limiting the charge to $100. All of the appropriation bills and the loan bill we signed by the governor yesterday, and at 6 o'clock last evening the senate adjourned sine

Late Saturday night the senate passed bills for the taxation of the telegraph and telephone companies operating in the state and sent the unit of the house. Somehow the tele-phone bill did not reach the house, which was ready to pass it under a suspension of the rules.

After adjournment the astonishing information was permitted to leak out that all the bills vetoed by the governor and repassed by the Democratic majority were in such shape that they are bound to fail. The constitution requires that all bills and j tions passed by the legislature shall bear the signatures of the speaker of the house and president of the senate. These bills when first presented to the governor were duly authenticated as prescribed by the constitution, but after being vetoed and repassed they were simply signed by the clerk of the house and secretary of the senate, and in this form deposited with the secretary of state instead of going through the bands of the governor, as the statutes require. It is main-tained by opponents of the vetoed legislation that these are fatal defects, and that all the measures, among which are the law creating a board of public works and officers for the city of Indianapolis, fire and police boards for Indianapolis and Evansville, the bill depriving the governor of his appointing power, etc., ace null and void. ower, etc., ace null and void.

The joint committee of the two branches of the legislature appointed to investigate the affairs of the insane hospital made a report vesterday severely condemning the manage ment. The committee was composed equally of Democrats and Republicans and for the first time a unanimous report was submitted. A defalcation of $3,000 was discovered and the committee recommends that Treasurer Gapen be proceeded against for embezzlement. A deficiency of $17,964, bills allowed and unpaid, is found. The removal of Store-keeper Hall is recommended on account of his inefficiency. Superintendent Galbraith it is alleged has shown himself not to be qualified to discharge the duties of his position. Large sums of hospital money were loaned monthly by Treasurer Gapen to John E. Sullivan without security and in violation of law, while persons holding checks were compelled to await payment. Other irregularities were discovered. The report was approved and spread upon the records of the two houses, and 5,000 copies of it were ordered printed for distribution.

The police and fire commissioners selected by the legislature for Indianapolis met yes-terday morning and filed their bonds. They held commissions signed by the speaker the house and the secretary of the senate, the governor having declined to commission them. After formally organizing they se-lected a secretary, and Capt. Colbert, of the present force, as superintendent of police. Colbert appeared at police headquarters last night and demanded that Superintendent Travis surrender to him the control of the po lice officers, but the latter declined. Colber then read a list of officers appointed by the new board, who were instructed to appear at the court house 'a-day and be sworn in. The list of appointments of the new board includes a number of officers now on the force. Whether they will report, as or dered by the new board, is doubtful.

The new commissioners also selected a new fire chief, but for some reason failed to make a demand for possession.

Robert Garrett on His Way to Mexico. LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 11.—Ex-President Robert Garrett, of the Baltimore & Ohio, and his party arrived in this city at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, over the Ohio & Missis-sippi road, from New York, and left at noon Monday by the Louisville & Nashville for the City of Mexico. Mr. Garrett is greatly improved in mind and body, and in conversation exhibits much of the old-time vigor that made him one of the most remarkable railroad executives in the United States.

Puck says: "The white man who drives a coa cart has to resort to soap and water, just as does a negro who has spent the day in whitewashing, But the most strange things of all are usually resorted to when a man gets sick. Of course he doesn't want a doctor-at least not at first. He usually goes to the so-called saloon and gets a drink, which makes him feel ather dazed, so he takes another, and comes some temporarily elated, supposing himself

When he wakes next morning, with a beadache twice as bad as ever, and feeling feverish and cross, he concludes he will have to try something else.

He takes a dose of whatever he happens to have in the house-some liver renovator, kidney evaporator, or heart enlarger- and sets forth saying if he isn't better tomorrow he will send for the doctor.

Next morning he is sick in bed; the doctor is called, shakes his head, prescribes two or three kinds of medicine, according to his medical creed, but always insists upon perfect quiet, and that the patient must not go to his office for two weeks, or the result will be serious. He does, in truth, lie in bed for a week or ten days, his recovery retarded by a multitude of of remedies, and the knowledge that his business is going to ruin in his absence. When he does drag out at last, he finds that the family must deny themselves everything but the common necessities of life for some time to come, n order that the doctor's bill may be paid, and repairs made in the business.

Now, the proper thing for this man to have done was to have bought a bottle of New Style. Pleasant Taste Vinegar Bitters, the moment be felt the first headache, and to have taken two tablespoonfuls at once. Two or three half-deses, two days apart, after the first dose had taken effect, would have cured him and prevented his ulness, and his consequent financial loss
